Airports

Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX)

Sky Harbor, dubbed America's Friendliest Airport, is the main airport for the Greater Phoenix area. Sky Harbor serves more than 120 domestic and international destinations. With 1,200 daily flights—about 500 of them nonstop—Sky Harbor is one of the most convenient airports in the United States.

Sky Harbor is served by 18 competitively priced carriers. The airport is located in the middle of Greater Phoenix, less than 10 minutes from downtown, and within 30 minutes of most hotels and resorts.

Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport (AZA)

Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport, located in southeast Mesa, is a growing regional airport serving the Greater Phoenix area. Gateway Airport serves about 1.3 million passengers per year to more than 35 nonstop destinations.

What to Bring

Preparing for your training session is essential to ensure a productive and comfortable experience. Here's a checklist of items to bring with you:

- Steel Toe Boots: While not required, we highly recommend wearing steel toe boots for safety during hands-on activities.
- Tools: No need to worry about bringing your own tools – we will provide all the necessary equipment for your learning.
- Notebook and Writing Instruments: Bring a notebook and something to write with to take notes during lectures and demonstrations.

By bringing these items, you'll be well-prepared for a successful and enriching training session.
